To Whom it May Concern:

I wanted to send this email to you to say that I am NOT involved in any civil lawsuit against Chuck Rodrick II, Brent Oesterblad or anyone employed by or connected with your group of websites.

I want to say how sorry I am that this situation has gone far past what I had intended. When I first got involved my only intention was to get the information about my brother-in-law removed discreetly to avoid any further pain and humiliation to my family.

I am sorry for any pain or frustration this has caused you. The pain and frustration this whole situation has caused me has been horrendous, to say the least.

Janice Bellucci was my attorney and she was supposed to have removed me from the lawsuit against you this past January 2016. She did not honor my request as she said she would. I have filed complaints with the California State Bar because she lied to me and used me to legitimized her case by having plaintiffs like myself that are not convicted felons. When confronted by the California State Bar concerning my complaints, she lied to them as well.

When I spoke with Robert Anglen in 2013, he was supposed to write a very different article from what he ended up writing. My name and any family member's names were not supposed to appear in the article.

Statements he made in his article are completely FALSE. He wrote that I said things about you and your websites that I never said. The day after I read the article I called him to ask he print a retraction, but he refused.

He also recorded phone conversations that I had with him WITHOUT telling me I was being recorded. He is unprofessional, to say the least.

I will not appear in any court for any civil action. I will not testify against any of you and have no desire to do so.

I just want to be finished with this whole sorted mess and get on with my life.

It's too bad that dishonest lawyers and dishonest journalists cannot be trusted to tell the truth.

Thank you for you time and consideration.

Sincerely,
