SOR Archives,

I would like to offer my apology to you for posting a public review of SOR Archives on RipOffReport. You can probably understand that I would very much like to have my information cleared from online profiling, and after 10 years of compliance with community supervision, have earned that right legally. Regardless of your intentions and desire to post my criminal history online, my posting a very public review of your business on Ripoff report did not constitute fair play, in my opinion, and so I would like to apologize for that. I too own a business and seek to protect its reputation at all costs so I can understand why you posted your rebuttal.

I would like to see how we can further mediate this unpleasant situation.

Sincerely,

Ryan Graves
