Notary Public FAQs Notary seals and journals

Q4. What types of notary seals are acceptable in Colorado?

A4. Beginning on August 8, 2012, your notary seal must be a rectangular ink stamp with a rectangular outline or border. Embossers should not be used.

The law does not specify a particular size or ink color.

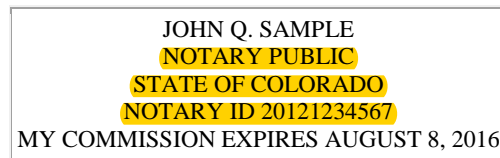

Inside the border, you must have: [\[1\]](#)

1. Your legal name,
2. The words "NOTARY PUBLIC",
3. The words "STATE OF COLORADO",
4. Your notary ID number, and
5. Your commission expiration date.

No other information can be placed within the border or outline.

The name on your notary seal must match the name on your notary certificate exactly.

Q5. My seal doesn't look like the example above. Can I keep using it?

A5. You can continue to use any stamp, seal, or embosser that you purchased before August 8, 2012, until your commission comes up for renewal. When you next renew your commission, you must get and use an ink stamp seal that meets the new standards.
